section 3(3); or

(b) any exemption granted pursuant to section 3(4):

Provided that before withdrawing such approval or exemption, the Governor shall afford the Registered Representative an opportunity to make written representations regarding any proposed action within such time as may be specified in the notice, but not being a period of less than seven days.

(8) Whenever the Governor shall withdraw any approval or exemption under subsection (7) he may cause notice of such action to be published in the Gazette.

(9) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any trust instrument, where the Governor is satisfied that in the interests of a trust it is necessary for all or any of the trusts for which the company is acting as trustee to be transferred to a new trustee for administration by such trustee, the Governor may petition the court for that purpose.
(10) Wherever the Governor takes action pursuant to subsection (9), the court, may, after hearing representations from the Governor or any other person appearing to the court to be affected, order the transfer of any such trust to a new trustee, and may make such supplemental or incidental orders or give such directions, as the court thinks fit.”.

Amends

5. The Third Schedule of the principal Act is amended by the insertion of the following immediately after paragraph (p) –

Schedule

principal Act.

“(q) On commencement of the business of a private trust company .......................... 5,000.

(r) Continuance in being on the first day of January in any year as a private trust company mentioned in paragraph (q) ................. 5,000.”.
OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill empowers the Governor to exempt private trust companies from the licensing requirements of the principal Act.

Clause 2 defines “private trust company” and also defines “Registered Representative”.

Clause 3(3) requires a person who is not a licensee to obtain the Governor’s prior approval before acting as a Registered Representative.

Clause 3(4) empowers the Governor to exempt a person from the licensing requirements of the Banks and Trust Companies Regulation Act.

Clause 3(5) provides that the provisions of the Banks and Trust Companies Regulation Act apply to Private Trust Companies and to Registered Representatives.

Clause 4(7) empowers the Governor to withdraw, by notice in writing, any approval or exemption granted by him under section 3(3) or 3(4) of the Banks and Trust Companies Regulation Act, 2000.

Clause 4(8) empowers the Governor to publish in the gazette a notice that he has withdrawn any approval or exemption granted to a Registered Representative or Private Trust Company, respectively.

Clause 4(9) empowers the Governor to petition the court to transfer the trusteeship of a trust.
Clause 5 seeks to impose an annual licence fee of $5,000.00 for persons who carry on private trust business.
